

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the Employee Giving Campaign?

The Employee Giving Campaign is an outreach effort by a group of employee volunteers, to encourage the faculty and staff to make charitable contributions in support of the Nassau Community College Foundation. As employees, we all play a key role in supporting the school and its students. The Nassau Community College Foundation is a not-for-profit that actively seeks and accepts donations from former students, their families, community members, corporations and foundations as well as employees. Every employee is invited to participate at any point in the year.

How much should I give to the Employee Giving Campaign?

Donations of all amounts are greatly appreciated and whether $1 or $1 million your gift to this year's campaign will have a positive impact on everyone served by the Nassau Community College Foundation. If you itemize deductions on your tax return, all contributions to the Nassau Community College Foundation are deductible to the extent provided by law.

Why are donations from employees important?

When employees give, it sends a meaningful endorsement to the greater community. This is especially important when seeking financial contributions from other sources like corporations and foundations. To tell them that a large number of our employees personally invest in where they work proves the strength of support from those who know Nassau Community College best.

If I sign up for payroll deduction, do I need to renew each year?

You do not need to renew each year, as your deduction will continue. You can, however, make a change to your donation level at any time. Your change will be made in two to three weeks.
