College of the Air programs begin 2/4/2008

WHPC is proud to provide quality programming for Nassau Community College and to its broad audience in the community it serves. In our efforts to reflect the interests of our listeners, we are constantly evaluating our programming and updating it based on the needs and interests of our audience. Last January, we instituted our themed program schedule and we are pleased to announce it has been a tremendous success.

- Jazz/Standards
- Urban/ Soul
- Rock/Pop
- Folk/Country
- Music/Talk

- College of The Air

In keeping with our commitment to provide quality programming, WHPC is proud to introduce a number of new student produced programs. Join Erika Zizzo for Technologic, the best in club and eighties revival music. Listen to various forms of dance music along with concert information, live guests, and more. To get the night started, Stephanie Lombardo hosts The Club Mix with a mix of feel good tunes, ranging from hip hop, techno, dance classics and current hits. Mike Ewald hosts Lions Weekly for our 'first ever' sports show exclusively about NCC Sports featuring interviews with NCC Lions coaches and players. NCC student hosts Stephen Pellegrino and Rob Brill present Metal for the Masses, featuring a mix of metal music and interviews from the Long Island heavy metal scene.

These are just some of the exciting changes taking place at WHPC. Look for more in the coming months! We would also like to thank our listeners whose comments have helped us better understand the role college radio plays in their lives and has allowed us to evolve and implement change. We look forward to moving ahead with the best in music, entertainment, public affairs, local and national news and NCC events.

Send your comments to WHPC@ncc.edu.

Thanks for listening!
