

NASSAU COMMUNITY COLLEGE Residency Requirements

To be eligible for resident tuition, a student or his/her parent* must have one (1) year of legal residence in New York State AND six (6) months in the County of Nassau. The following is a sample list of acceptable items which may be submitted as proof of residence. Any conflicts in information must be resolved before residency can be granted. You must provide documentation to satisfy both State and County residency requirements. Submit the copies to the Admissions Office at the time of application or to the Office of the Registrar if you are a continuing student. Please provide legible copies.
