ARTFORUMS

SEPTEMBER 2017

▶ ARTIST SUSAN BUROKER

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14 • 11:45 AM – 12:45 PM • BUILDING G, ROOM C65

Art offers us the ability to go outside the barrier of what we currently know or think, allowing us to change our perceptions, ignite new ideas, and generate critical thinking.

As a life long resident of Long Island, Susan Buroker's work is grounded in social issues bearing witness to the poisoning to our bodies from industrial pollutants and the socioeconomics that have forced people from their land in search of more affordable housing. "Using drawing, posters, sculpture, video animation, performance and puppetry, my desire is to encourage community and public participation as a means of bringing about social change."

▶ GALLERY DIRECTOR LYNN ROZZI: WALK BY TOUR OF ART SHOWCASES

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 • 11:45 AM – 12:45 PM • BUILDING G, MEET IN FRONT OF ART OFFICE, ROOM 179

Meet in front of the art office for a discussion on the work featured in the showcases of building G. The work by 3D artist and art department faculty, Bill Shillalies, and mixed media artist and faculty member, Jen Scott are featured in the showcases. Discussion will include answering the questions on the required art survey sheet.

▶ COLORING BOOK SESSION

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 • EVENING ACTIVITY HOUR, 8:30 PM – 9:45 PM • CCB, ROOM 140

Join in the nationwide adult coloring book phenomenon in room 140 of the CCB. Enjoy a peaceful evening of coloring and interaction with fellow students and faculty. Art supplies included. Refreshments will be served.
