ART FORUMS

FINAL ART FORUMS FOR THE FALL SEMESTER

DECEMBER 2018

▶ MATTING & FRAMING WORKSHOP

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6 • 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM • BUILDING GC, 65

NCC Technologist Lawrence Chatterton will demonstrate matting and framing artwork. For students who have never learned to frame their artwork, this workshop will offer an individual skill with multiple applications for professional artists. In anticipation of submitting art work to The Plaza Art Gallery Student Exhibition this spring this Art Forum will increase your knowledge of professional practice. If you have framed your work in the past, but would like to review the process, please attend. Bring your artwork and mattboards. All are welcome.

▶ FILM: JACKSON POLLOCK: LOVE AND DEATH ON LONG ISLAND

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13 • 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM • BUILDING G, C65

A documentary about the life and tragic death of abstract artist Jackson Pollock. Features interviews with Lee Krasner (Pollock's wife), and other friends and fellow artists. Also featured are scenes of Pollock as well as an interview. This is a great glimpse into the mind of a great artist.
