

Nassau Community College

Workforce Development & Lifelong Learning Programs

ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

Scholarship opportunities are now available through Nassau Community College's Center for Workforce Development and Lifelong Learning. If you meet the criteria below, you may be awarded a scholarship to help offset the course fee.

To be eligible for a scholarship, you must meet basic requirements including:

- Be an unemployed or under-employed Nassau County resident
- Be at least 17 years of age
- Have earned a high school diploma or equivalent for workforce training opportunities*
- Have access to a computer and Wi-Fi (courses may have a remote learning components)
- Meet HUD income eligibility requirements (determination will be based on documentation provided with your application). Income eligibility is based on the number of members in your household and the total income of all the members of the household. Please submit your income documents after blacking out personal identification information such as a Social Security number.

If you are eligible to receive a scholarship, you must be available to come to our office for a brief interview.

If your plans change after being awarded a scholarship, you must notify our office at least seven (7) days before the course begins.

Workforce Development Training Opportunities*

More information on workforce development training courses (e.g. EMT, EKG Technician, SHRM-CP®/SHRM-SCP®, Dental Assisting, Pharmacy Technician, etc.) can be found at this link: Center for Workforce Development Course Offerings

Training and Course Application link: Application